

Name: _____
Mrs. Do

Date: _____
Front Page Newspaper- Lyddie

Due Date: Thursday April 20, 2017

You are a writer for the local newspaper. It has been brought to your attention, by a young girl named Lyddie, that working conditions in a nearby factory are unfair and inhumane. The majority of your front page will cover Working Conditions and/or Factory Life based on facts from the novel, Lyddie.

Your front page cover MUST include the following:

1. An original name for the newspaper
2. A large headline (title)
3. An article demonstrating the conditions Lyddie and her friends experienced (at least 300 words)
 - a. Two pieces of text evidence
4. Your opinion as a journalist of the factory conditions
5. 2 images relevant to your story
6. Author's Name (you) and date
7. An advertisement relevant to the book

Make sure your newspaper cover spans the entire page. Check for spelling and grammar.

You may use (but are not limited to) one of the following websites and templates below:

<http://www.makemynewspaper.com/newspaper-templates-for-students>

<http://www.scoop.it/t/creating-newspapers-in-the-classroom>

<https://www.newspaperclub.com/create/arthr>

<https://poweredtemplate.com/brochure-templates/newsletters/free/index.html>

<http://www.educatorstechnology.com/2013/03/wonderful-free-templates-to-create.html>

(An example template has been provided on the following page)

Advertisement

Name of Newspaper

TODAY'S DATE

Headline/Title of Article

Author's Name

Image Goes Here

Article is continued here..

Starts here...

Article is continued here..

Image Goes Here

Extra advertising